This request is in accordance with PLP clause 3.6:

3.6 Process for allocating Initial Long Term Capacity

(c) (If initial demand exceeds supply) If, at the end of the Initial Application Period, there is not sufficient Initial Long Term Capacity available to satisfy all applications received in accordance with clause 3.3 for the relevant Allocation Period, Bunge will invite all applicants to submit a revised application under clause 3.3 by the date specified on the Bunge Website. For the avoidance of doubt:

2. clauses 3.4 and 3.5 will apply to any revised application submitted in accordance with this clause 3.6(c); and
3. if a Client chooses not to submit a revised application in accordance with this clause 3.6(c), that Client's initial application submitted under clause 3.3 will remain in force.

Once revised applications have been received and assessed Bunge will notify of the next steps regarding allocation.
